10,056 people attended 601 learning and multilingualism activities. 273 language training courses were held with 244 students in Arabic, 228 students in Chinese, 541 students in English, 1,741 students in French, 256 students in Russian and 542 students in Spanish.